Questions for the discussion

Aerosol impact on regional climate:

1. What role have natural and anthropogenic aerosol emissions played in regional climate over the past decades?

2. What role will natural and anthropogenic aerosol emissions play in the upcoming decades?

3. What do we need to improve in global and regional climate models for a better understanding of key aerosol processes?

4. How can the global and regional modelling communities collaborate and contribute to exploring these questions?